About LantarenVenster

The LantarenVenster had a rich history stretching back to 1949 as a venue for film, dance, theatre and music at its old location on the Gouvernestraat road in Rotterdam. The new LantarenVenster opened in October 2010 in the light and spacious New Orleans building on the Wilhelmina Pier in the Kop van Zuid district. Since then, the focus has been on film and music, especially jazz.

The LantarenVenster has one multifunctional space, five cinemas and a foyer. These can stage events catering to between 20 and 750 people, from congresses to private film showings and to business dinners. The largest multifunctional space has a ceiling height of ten metres and can be arranged as desired. It can hold up to 300 people when set up as a theatre and 450 people at a reception. The Foyer can be used to stage dinners for groups of up to 350 people. Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the building.

The LantarenVenster is just two minutes' walk from Wilhelmina metro station where a number of trams also stop. There are various car parks nearby and mooring points for the water taxi.
