About Congress by design

Partnership by design

Congress by Design believes in the power of knowledge sharing to shape a better future. They do this by bringing people and science together in a way that meets the needs and objectives of clients. Whether live, online or hybrid, Congress by design ensures that it is conceived and arranged in such a way that it creates a rich breeding ground for new insights, cross-connections and scientific and social progress.

Full-service PCO with international experience

With more than 20 years of experience and more than 350 national and international conferences in its portfolio, Congress by design is a reliable Professional Congress Organizer (PCO), who works with great dedication and an eye for detail. Congress by design mainly works for scientific associations, corporates and governments and has long-term partnerships with clients. With offices in Alphen aan den Rijn and Groningen, Congress by Design connects seamlessly to regional networks and issues. Congress by design is IAPCO certified.

Functional meeting design

Congress by design not only organizes conferences, they shape the content and experience. The functional meeting design that they develop provides direction to the design and organization and is the compass on which the project team steers and switches throughout the entire process. Each meeting design is unique and provides guidance for all parties involved during the implementation. In this way, they help clients achieve their objectives and organize conferences with impact.
